SPECIALIST NAMES BERRY FOR GOVERNOR

Keystone Party Nominates a State Ticket.

Short Ballot and Revision of Charitable System Among Other Things Advocated-Convention Was Stormy.

William H. Berry, of Chester, former state treasurer, swept the convention of the new Keystone (third) party in Philadelphia and landed the guberna torial nomination by a lead of 50 votes over his nearest competitor.

The first ballot showed a total of 96 votes for Berry, 46 for Rudolph Blankenburg, of Philadelphia, and 22 for George W. Guthrie, former mayor of Pittsburg. There were 177 delegates present, representing 51 counties.

D. Clarence Gibboney was nominated for lieutenant governor; John J. Casey, of Wilkes-Barre, for secretary of internal affairs, and Cornelius D. Scully, of Pittsburg, for state treas-

Mr. Berry later appeared before the convention, and after a ten-minute outburst of enthusiasm had subsided promised the delegates to stump the state from end to end, thanked them for the honor they had conferred upon him and predicted that the end of bossism had come in Pennsylvania.

The session, which was held in Witherspoon hall, Juniper and Walnut streets, lasted from early in the morning until late at night. From the first tap of the gavel, when John O. Sheatz, former state treasurer and chairman of the temporary executive committee of the new party, called the delegates to order until the final motion to adjourn, the convention hall was a continuous scene of stress and turmoil. Factions without number fought valiantly for their own individual interests, and several times the arguments became so heated and personal that only the cool headedness of a few of the leaders saved the assemblage Settlement of losses without discount. from a stampede.

Roosevelt vs. Bryan. The most serious clash came late in label is on your policy there is no indorsing Theodore Roosevelt. There need for worry-we will protect your was immediately a division of the delegates along party lines, and there were shouts from all corners of the room of "Why not Bryan also?" Several delegates wanted to speak at the same time, and the pounding of the gavel was lost in the uproat. Finally Henry C. Niles, of York, chairman, succeeded in preventing open hostilities, and the resolution was laid on the table amid the hisses and jeers directed at Mr. Riter. The platform, in brief, is as collows: Vigorous denunciation of the Republican and Democratic state tickets, Condemnation of "boss rule," and assertion that both old party tickets

> Mother Slays Her Four Children. Four young children of Mrs. Joseph Mello, wife of a wealthy rancher, near Brentwood, Cal., were drowned by their mother. Mrs. Mello was evidently driven insane by the loneliness of the country. She lived in a big farmhouse with her husband and children, the oldest being Chester, 14 years old. No servant was employed. After writing letters to her relatives, telling them she was desperate through loneliness, she took the five children into the kitchen

First she strangled little Ramon, a 4-year-old girl, and then drowned her in a washtub. Leona, a 2-year-old girl, came next. She snatched the baby from the arms of her brother and killed the child like the others. Then she seized the twin babies, five months old, and plunged them in he tub. Little Chester, who had vainly tried to barrel, as to quality. stop his mother's dreadful work, rushed out inta the yard and screamed for help. Sheriff Veale happened to be passing in an automobile and he responded. He tried to resuscitate the twins. He took the mother and the twins of the took the mother and the results are the twins of twins the twins. He took the mother and placed her under arrest and in a hos-
